THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 27.

A FAMILY OF SIX POISONED.—A policeman on Thursday last arrested Charles Linderman, of this city, for poisoning his wife and five children. The information came from the neighbors, and the officer, going to the house, found the youngest child lying very ill, but the rest of the family recovered. The poison was administered on last Sunday morning, according to Mrs. Linderman. She states that her husband makes the coffee every morning, and on that day performed his usual task. When the breakfast was ready Linderman called his family down stairs. They sat down, but after taking a swallow or two of the coffee they all became very sick. The sickness gradually passed away from all but Annie, a child four years old, her ailment developing into brain fever, for which the physician is now treating her. Mrs. Linderman was sure to be in suppressing the matter until Tuesday. Linderman's attempt to poison his family and himself—for he drank his share of the coffee and suffered like the rest—is described to melancholy, brought on by his failure to get work. It is said that he had a situation at Bill's car works, at $12 a week, but on a reduction to $8 he declined to work, and gave up his job.—Phila. Record

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

—1881—

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 1779, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia. It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard news-paper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprie-tor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to ren-der faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Common-wealth of Virginia.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX-ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously chronicled.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such pains-taking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexan-dria and neighboring markets given with accu-racy and dispatch. The Grocery and other mar-kets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c., which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to af-ford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.
